

All of my favourite things...

An illustration workshop with
Rachel Zimmermann

This unique workshop will provide an opportunity for participants to socialise with other parents whilst creating a personalized art work for their child.

Participants will learn how to create their own collage papers using a range of printing, painting and resist techniques. Then using a process of cut and paste participants will compose an illustration that encompasses all their child's favourite things along with their child's name.

The final illustrations will be framed on the day allowing the participants to hang their artwork as soon as they arrive home!
